

Christmas Crafts from Around the World

CHINA

Christmas is not widely recognized in China since only a small population are Christians. However, many families do celebrate by setting up Christmas trees, making paper flowers or paper lanterns. Families may still exchange presents and have family gatherings.

Paper Lantern

Use a 5×7 card stock in bright colors. Fold a paper in half landscape. First, cut a 1" strip from the short side of the paper and reserve it for later. Fold the rest of the paper in half lengthwise and cut 1" strips along the folded edge, making sure to stop about 1" away from the opposite edge.

